

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

1. In most countries with reliable train service, selected carriages on each train are restricted to no cell phone use. Unless the FCC can manage to set up airplanes to keep this annoyance from other passengers trying to work in peace and quiet, which I always need to do when flying for business, the atmosphere in the cabin will become even more bus station-like than it already is.
2. The use of cell phones would also seem to facilitate terrorism and block airlines and FAA officials' abilities to thwart on-board terrorism. All public spaces need not succumb to the over-stimulation of content-free noise. Please stop considering allowing this.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Dr. Kirk W. Junker Professor of Law Duquesne University
